Rogers Parries All Questions Asked About Standard Oil Business.

THOMAS W. LAWSON MAY BE CALLED TO TESTIFY

Indicates in Published Advice That He Possesses Valuable Information.

NEW YORK, Jan. &.-Henry H. Rogers, ice-president of the Standard Oil comany of New Jersey, and a director of the Standard Oil company of Indians, which Attorney Herbert S. Hadley is trying to oust from the State of Missouri, was or the witness stand today on que warrante proceedings brought by Mr. Hadley. Mr. Hadley took up with him only two points: Whether the Standard Oli company of Initana has an office in the building at 26 Broadway, this city, where the Standard Oil company of New Jersey has its offices, and whether the Standard Oil company of New Jersey owns or controls a majority of the stock of the Indiana company, the Waters-Pierce Oil company of Missouri and the Republic Oil company of New

Mr. Rogers Doesn't Know.

Mr. Rogers Doesn't Know.

Mr. Rogers said that he did not know that the Indiana company has offices at 25 Broadway; that he supposed its affairs are conducted in Indiana, and that he imagined that James A Moffett, president of the Standard Oil company of Indiana, has an office at 25 Broadway, but that he (Mr. Rogers) was never in it.

Mr. Rogers was never in it.

Mr. Rogers declined to answer the question whether the Standard Oil company of New Jersey owns the stocks of the companies which Mr. Hadley alleges have combined to stifle competition in Missouri. Mr. Hadley pressed the question with much insistence and demanded answers without evasions. thout evasions.

Mr. Rogers was testifying when the aring adjourned today.

May Ask Lawson to Testify.

After the adjournment Attorncy-General Hadley's attention was called to some published advice to him concerning the proceedings from Thomas W. Lawson of Boston, and he was asked.

"Do you want Mr. Lawson to come down here and testify in this case?"

"Certainly. If Mr. Lawson knows anything I should like to have him come down," said Mr. Hadley.

Before interrogation of witnesses began today Mr. Hadley informed the commissioner that Wade Hampton, auditor of the Standard Oil company, one of the witnesses summoned, had not responded.

Mrs. Ida M. Butts, stepdaughter of the late George L. Rice of Marietta, O., was the first witness.

Identifies Trust Certificates.

Mr. Hadley read a certificate of ours in the original Standard Oil to issued by the board of trustees of that trust in 1892 to George M. Rice. It was signed by John D. Rockefeller, Henry M. Flagler and William T. Wardell. It was indorsed as having been issued in compliance with an order of the Supreme court of New York, made in 1896. Mrs. Butts identified it as having belonged to Mr. Phys.

After Court's Order.

After Court's Order.

Mr. Hadley also read a certificate of an assignment of legal title of one share in the Standard Oil trust to George M. Rice, and asked if this was issued after the Standard Oil company of Ohio was ordered by the courts to be dissolved in 1892. These were the papers about which Mrs. Butts was questioned on Saturday, but which she could not then produce. They were signed by John D. Rockefeller, H. H. Rögers, W. H. Tillford, attorney, and F. Q. Barstow, as secretary.

Tears the Reporters.

Fears the Reporters.

Frank Hagerman, counsel for the Standard Oil company, objected to this question as asked only for the purpose of publication by the twenty reporters pres-ent. The objection was overruled. Mrs. Butts said the paper was owned by Mr.

Rice
These six shares are said to be the only shares of the original Standard Oil trust now in existence. Mrs. Butts said the Waters-Pierce Oil company was a member of the original Standard Oil trust. Mrs. Butts said Mr. Rice had another assignment of title which he converted into scrip of the constituent companies of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey.

Pretended Dissolution.

Mr. Hadley again brought from the witness, as on Saturday, that these assignments of title were issued in course of what Mr. Hadley called the "pretended dissolution" of the Standard Oil company of Ohio and the final ejection of that company from Ohio in contempt proceedings. Mrs. Butts said these shares of stock were exchangeable for shares of stock in the Standard Oil company.

Became Holding Company

Became Holding Company. Did the Standard Oil company of New Jersey become the holding company of these companies in the Standard Oil trust" asked Mr Hadley. "It did," said Mrs. Butts.

It did," said Mrs. Butts.
Mrs. Butts also possessed as adminisratrix of George M. Rice a certificate f shares of stock heid by him in the trandard Oil company of Indiana.
She said that Alexander McDonaid &
o of Cincinnati were in existence before he Standard Oil trust and became the She said that Alexander McDonaid & Co. of Clincinnait were in existence before the Standard Oil trust and became the Consolidated Tank Line company and a member of the original Standard Oil trust. The Chess Carley company of Louisville, Ky. she said, was also a member of that trust.

Mrs. Butts was then excused.

Accountant Tells Story

Accountant Tells Story.

If D Hardcastle was the next witness. He was an accountant of the Standard Oil company. He said he lives in New York and entered the employ of the Standard Oil company at Albany. N. Y., in 1891. The manager of the company at Albany then, he said, was L. P. Cutter. Witness was employed there eight years and then went to Cleveland. O., where he worked for the Republic Oil company. Witness was transferred through orders of W. H. Tilford, 26 Broadway, a director of the Standard Oil company. Mr. Tilford sald the Standard Oil complany had jus absorbed Schofield, Schumer & Tagle and reorganized it as the Republic Oil company. Hardcastle gave details to show that the new company was an arm of the trust, remarking that 75 New street New York, the address given for the Republic Oil company, was merely a rear entrance to 26 Broadway, where the Standard Oil company's offices are. C J. Nichols, president of the Republic Oil ompany, had offices at 26 Broadway.

Visited Republic's Territory.

Visited Republic's Territory.

Witness was in Cleveland about four weeks and visited the territory served by the Republic Oil company. He went to Detroit, Grand Rapids, Chicago, Des Moines, Omaha, Kansas City and St. Louis. The Republic Oil company was doing business under that name in Kansas City and St. Louis. "What instructions were given by the Republic Oil company to its agents in reference to representing it as a competitor of the Standard Oil company?" asked Mr. Hadley.

Said to Be Independent.

The managers of the different States were under the impression that the Republic Oil company was independent of the Standard Oil company. They got instructions from the Kansas office to represent to their trade that they were independent of the Standard Oil company." What were they trying to accomplish by this plan of deception?"

"It was to secure the trade that the Standard Oil company could not get."

Was to Secure Trade.

Was to Secure Trade.

Witness said the purpose of his visit Witness said the purpose of his visit was to install a stock system as employed in New York and other States by the Standard Oil company. This was shortly after the Republic Oil company succeeded to Schofield, Schurmer & Tagle. The Republic Oil company got oil from the Standard Oil company witness said. He remained about a month and then went to the Atlantic Refining company of Philadelphia.

"Was that a transfer or a change of employment?" asked Mr. Hadley.

"It was a transfer."

Had to Give Up Letters.

Had to Give Up Letters.

After six months witness went back to Albany and remained less than a week when he resigned. Afterward he was reemployed by the Standard Oil company at Albany for fifteen months, and was then asked to resign. Under pressure from Mr. Vandusen, then Albany manager, witness gave up letters which he had received from the Republic Oil company. After eight weeks he was re-employed. "When I resigned," said Mr. Hardeastie, "the Standard Oil company gave me an advance on my salary and offered me a ticket abroad good only one way. It had no return coupon on it I asked them for the equivalent in cash. I was a mative of England. That is where they wanted me to go when I quit."

Mr. Hardeastie said he did not get the cash equivalent of the ticket.

Report of Flash Light.

At this point there was the loud report of a newspaper photographer's flash-light and the room was filled with smoke. Mr. Rogers left the room and the proceedings were suspended. The commissioner requested the photographers to keep their cameras out of the room and announced a recess until 2 p. m.

After recess Mr. Hardcastle was on the stand again and testified to the control of the Republic Oil company by the Standard Oil company.

Mrs. Ida M. Butts was cross-questioned by the Standard Oil company's counsel. Frank Hagerman began the questioning He asked If Mr. Rice, her step-father, was not in active operation against the Waters-Pierce Oil company, and Mrs. Butts said.

Butte said

Tried to Get Rates.

"His active efforts were to secure rall-road rates that would enable him to com-pete with the Standard Oil company, and it was construed as against the Standard O'l company."

Counsel for the Standard Oil company asked to include the answer as unrespon-sive, but the commissioner allowed it to stand.

Mrs. Butte was questioned further co one Butts was questioned further con-trining her sources of knowledge that o Standard Oil trust controlled other i companies. Mr. Hagerman falled in a effort to have certain of her state-ents stricken out.

DR. MORRIS USES STRONG LANGUAGE

Severely Arraigns Those Responsible for Wife's Forcible Ejection.

SAYS HUMANITY WOULD REVOLT AT BRUTALITY

Denounces Imposition of Fine as Adding to Her Humiliation.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8 .- Dr. Minor Morris, whose wife was ejected from the White House last Thursday, to night gave out a public statement in which he severely arraigns those responsible for her removal, denounces the imposition of a fine in her case as adding to her humiliation, and replies to the statement of her brother. Repre-sentative Hull of Iowa regarding the will and codicil of her father. The statement is addressed "To Whom It May Concern," and begins as follows:

Calls It a Sickening Thing. 'A woman of the highest culture, of the rarest attainments, who has de-voted her life to her home, her family and her ideals, whose only thought has been to do good, and who has slways considered others before herself, a wife and mother—has been seized from behind, in the waiting room of the White House and maltreated with a brutality which humanity would re-voit at seeing accorded to its lowest type. The details of the sickening thing, unnameable, are now known to the whole country. Did Not Press Insane Charge.

Dr. Morris alleges that an effort was made to hold Mrs. Morris at the house of detention until his arrival two days later, to make it appear that she was "friendless and insane." He says that the physicians sent to examine her manifested their indignation and that as it "became dangerous to press the insane charge she stands today recorded as the disturber of the peace to the extent of $5."

Suffering Not in Vain

Morris says her suffering will not have been in vain, "if the larger pur-poses of truth and injustice are strengthened in the community." His wife did not scream, he says, until "the violent seizure by secret service men surprised her with the command to 'Come on.'" The statement makes sarcastic allusions to Assistant Secre-tary Barnes, who, it says, after ordering her removal tried to defend him-

Dr. Morris says that the mental and physical bruises which Mrs. Morris has sustained would be dreadful in any environment, but the portals of the National residence of executive authority the pain is intensified a thousan

Takes Up Disputed Will.

The question of the disputed will is then taken up and the expressions given out by Representative Hull in recent interviews denounced as forgetful of the most sacred relationships of life "in the hour of her crucifixion. The statement alleges that while the testator, Mrs. Morris's father, said "I owe no debts," a debt of almost the entire estate was put through a court. and that a removal from the War de-partment of Dr. Morris, who mentions himself as the beneficiary's husband, was made in connection with the press ing of the latter's claims

Sense of Decency Shocked. In conclusion, Dr. Morris declares that the Nation's sense of decency has been shocked, that one woman has to bear all this, and that the "vital fact in the limelight is that this outrage is the gravest insult to the politeness of American life within the memory of men and women now living."

CUT DOWN WITH OWN SWORD

Isolated Attacks on Police and the Troops Continue at Moscow.

MOSCOW, Jan. 8.—The relaxation of the curfew regulations has been marked by the renewal of isolated attacks on the police and the troops. A sergeant-major of the Moscow dragoons, who had seen several decades of Service, was caught alone at midnight and cut down with his own sword. A patrol killed two and cap-tured one of the assailants of the ser-geant-major.

geant-major.

Another band raided the Presna district, the scene of the last open resistance of the revolutionaries. They were fired on by the sentinels at the Gorbatoff and Presna bridges and decapped after wounding one policeman.

Conditions in general are steadily improving, and the theaters and clubs have been allowed to reopen.

TRIBUNE TALKING MACHINE

Already the number of talking machines that have been carried away by readers of The Tribune has exceeded all expectations. There will be others ordered to meet the demands since the first two shipments vanished. "They are on the road," and those whose orders are now in may be accommodated early this week.

Our admonition about placing orders before the holidays was well heeded, but the same caution should be again extended. We cannot say how long the proposition will remain open, but in the interest of fairness and equal opportunity for all we want to give all a chance to take advantage of this grand offer-grander as time proves its value and popularity.

There need be no hesitancy about signing up for this Talking Machine. It is a plain deal, a square deal, and will be carried out in the best of faith. No better chance has yet been offered and you need not expect such a thing to occur.

Sign up for The Tribune for a year. The price is the same all the time to all people.

The same order carries with it absolutely free a $25.00 Talking Machine on your agreement to buy 58 ten-inch records for use on the machine at sixty cents each. The price of the records is the lowest obtainable anywhere and you have plenty of time in which to complete the purchase of the records.
